Summary of the Project

Eid-ul-Adha is the second festivity of Muslims, which they celebrate by sacrificing cattle animals including sheep, goat, cow, camel etc. during the month of Dhul Hijjah, the 12th in the Islamic calendar - in pursuit of the tradition (Sunnah) – of Prophet Ibrahim/Abraham (Alaih-es-Salam) once in every year. Observance of this tradition has been made binding upon the affording Muslims. Eid-ul-Adha is one of the two yearly Eid Festivals that celebrated by all Muslims of the world. Islam emphasizes on inclusion of the poor people and non-affording people in such celebrations. The ultimate objective of Qurbani is to invoke the spirit of self-sacrifice shown by Prophet Ibrahim (AS) and to submit oneself to the will of Allah.

RAHMA Islamic Relief has been organizing Qurbani on behalf of hundreds of contributors by reaching out to the most deserving beneficiaries. RAHMA Islamic Relief Fund Norway is the key partner of this project, who has mobilized contributions and from the Muslims living in Oslo. for sacrificing animals on their behalf in different parts of Pakistan, Kashmir and for Afghan refugees. Beside individual donors, RAHMA has also established collaboration with Hayrat Aid, Turkey and distributes meat among 275 deserving poor families living in surrounding of Gul Muhammad Langah, District Rahim Yar Khan Punjab.

The distribution of Qurbani meat was made in strict compliance to the Islamic injunctions and within the framework of the SPHERE (Humanitarian Charter and the Minimum Standards) and Hayrat Aid that all possible steps taken to provide assistance through an impartial procedure while also ensuring self-respect and dignity of the receivers. Each package contained 5 KG meat, distributed among 2323 households that benefited more than 15500 individuals.

| Challenges during implementation: | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Timely purchasing and transportation was difficult due to lockdown situation in some areas. Weather was extremely hot that chopping, transporting and distributing fresh meat was a major challenge at all places. Minor delay in transportation or distribution could make the meat inedible. |

Assessment & Selection of Beneficiaries:

Although, mobilization in different areas was restricted but since RAHMA has been working with the target communities in Kashmir, Rahim Yar Khan, Rawalpindi and Afghan Refugees and Tharparkar for many years, therefore team was well aware about the demographic details. The beneficiaries were identified with support of local volunteers and community notables. Signed and stamped tokens have been issued to the selected beneficiaries to make sure proper identification at distribution point.

Activity:

The distribution points were selected at accessible locations for the beneficiaries. Moreover, while selecting the locations, it was kept in mind that at least mini truck can reach to the location without any trouble. The slaughtering points were also established adjacent or near to the distribution points. The meat was transported well in time. Overall, distribution activity took almost 3 to 5 hours at each location.

Distribution process:

People having tokens came to distribution points as per given time, one by one got verified from the list and collected their packets and drawn their thump impressions to prove that they received the item. The whole procedure done on first come first serve basis. Rahma staff and local volunteers ensured smooth and timely distribution by establishing a beneficiary friendly procedure of cross verification through NIC, Token and the list and putting the thump impressions to make sure that no one has repeated/duplicated.

Pictorial coverage:

The activity has been covered through photographs.

Project outcome

Overall, 2323 families have been facilitated with Qurbani meat. The activity provided the opportunity to enjoy the happy moments of the auspicious occasion of Eid-ul-Adha especially to the vulnerable women and children by providing them meat in a substantial quantity.

Equitable distribution of Qurbani meat in respectful manner has enhanced the respect of both individual donors and organization among the beneficiaries. The activity has also enhanced networking to different stakeholders alongside helping vulnerable households.
